

ETNOSCOPE

The Swedish forest fraggels, with a deep lust for tribal beats and awesome ancient harmonies. Inspired by Scandinavian folk music and the primal urge for rhythms and beats. The band uses live vocals, percussions, guitars, Jew's harps along with cutting edge digital sonic landscapes and sounds. All to produce an massive experience that leaves a lasting impression on trancers worldwide.

The origins of the band dates back to the glorious late ninties. When it started as an jam band, only to gradually evolve into an bombastic cooperation of musical experimenters, with a love for the trance experience. In late 2000 they began the journey into professional releases on CD's and Vinyl, at Swedish label Digital Structures. First with a single track featured on the compilation "Footprints", followed by the critically acclaimed full length solo album "Drums from the dawn of time". More releases with multiple ep's, single tracks and remixes found publishers at a wide gamut of labels such as Flow, Yellow Sunshine Explosion, Iboga, Tribal Vision, Iono, Ektoplasm, and many many more.

Still not slowing down, a 3'rd full length album, of unreleased and bestof tracks. Is due for imminent release FREE on Ektoplasm. All leading up to the release of 4'th full length album called "Nordic Revolution", with all new tracks that has been finetuned at venues and festivals all over the world.

Always aiming to bring an unique performance to a fun loving entranced audience, the livesetup is tailored to your specific wishes. A number of different options and prices are available. All depending on the nature of the event, the size and the location.
